YERY LATEST.

London, Thursday Night.—The English funds slightly relapsed; the Paris Bourse also.
The Pays contains an article signed M. de Cassaquie, which says that the pamphlet entitled The Pope and Congress has been wrongly interpreted by the newspapers. He says the pamphlet does not propose to deprive the Pope of the Legations, but only advises him to admit of the present state of things, and proclaim the necessity of maintaining the temporal power of the Pope.
M. De C. adis that the pamphlet confines itself to announcing an opinion, while Congress

The London Times, in a leader on slavery in the United States, and the revulsion in favor of the Southern States, caused by the vagaries of the Abolitionists, says:

"The union of the American people is not only of importance to themselves, but the world at large. It has been fully proved, not only of importance to themselves, but in our own Colonies, that the enforced equality of the European and African tends not only to the elevation of the black, but to the degradation of the white man. We cannot find any sympathy for those who would try, in the United States, the plan of a half-caste Republic, and we trust that the Federal Government, and the right-thinking part of the community, will protect the South from a repetition of such outrages as that of Harper's Ferry."
